Advanced Techniques in Flexible Ureteroscopy

Workshop Scene

- Location: Ospedale Cottolengo, Torino, Italy

Course Faculty

- Professor Thomas Knoll, Department of Urology, University of Erlangen, Erlangen, Germany

Number of Attendees: 4 physicians

Course Overview

- The Advanced Workshop in Flexible Ureteroscopy offers a 1.5 day course aimed at the demonstration of the supine approach to PCNL. This course is designed to train attendees in a small group within a relaxed and informal environment.

Agenda

Day 1

- 08:00 - 14:30 Live cases in the operating theatre
- 14:00 Closing remarks

Day 2

- 08:00 - 14:00 Didactic presentations and live case observation on surgical techniques, including the use of all the latest armamentarium, laser lithotripsy, and management of the supine position.

Tips and Tricks

- Tips and tricks on the supine approach to PCNL will be discussed.

Equipment

- All the latest equipment and technology will be used.

Location

- Milan, Italy

Workshop Series

- Advanced Stone Management
- Advanced Techniques in Urolithiasis
- Advanced Course in Supine PCNL: A Different Approach

Dates

- November 7-8
- December 19-20