Ureteral Catheter Flexible Tip Open End

Prescriptive Information

Intended Use/Indications for Use

Ureteral Catheters are indicated for use in catheterization of the urinary tract during interoperative procedures, including but not limited to the following applications: 1) Ureteral occlusion for injection of contrast media 2) Delivery of irrigation fluids to the ureter 3) Drainage of fluids from the urinary tract 4) Access, advancement or exchange of ancillary devices including guidewires.

Contraindications

None known

Warnings

For single use only. Do not reuse, reprocess or resterilize.

Potential Adverse Events

None known

Precautions

Caution: Federal (USA) law restricts this device to sale by or on the order of a physician.